

Commercial grade.

Used for straightening and reshaping the cutting edge of knives.

Manufactured from special high carbon steel and hardened to Rockwell 65C.

After hardening the steels are chrome plated to resist corrosion and to reduce friction.

All steels are magnetized to retain metal particles resulting from usage.

Well proportioned white polypropylene handle provides good balance as well as maintaining the highest hygiene standards.

Handle is supplied with a strong plated steel ring for easy hanging.